THIS SEASON PROUDLY SPONSORED BY:

BMO

WELCOME

On behalf of the entire organization, the Toronto Maple Leafs media relations department welcomes you to the hockey club's training camp.

The Leafs will conduct training camp at the new MasterCard Centre for Hockey Excellence and Air Canada Centre (ACC) in Toronto, Ontario from September 12-30.

Directions to MasterCard Centre for Hockey Excellence:

For access to Air Canada Centre for practices and morning skates media should enter through Gate 2, which is located at the northeast corner of the arena on Bay Street.

 There is no guarantee as to the length of a particular practice session. In addition, we suggest calling the media information line (416) 815-5702 to confirm practice times and locations.*

BRIAN BURKE

President & General Manager

Brian Burke was named the President and General Manager of the Toronto Maple Leafs on November 29, 2008. The 54-year-old Burke became the 13th General Manager in Maple Leafs history and brings over 20 years of National Hockey League experience in various roles to the franchise. Since taking over the Maple Leafs, the club finished the 2008-09 regular season with a record of 27-26-7. Burke added many key players to the Maple Leafs roster during the summer of 2009 including goaltender Jonas Gustavsson; defencemen Francois Beauchemin, Mike Komisarek, and Garnet Exelby; as well as forwards

Rickard Wallin and Colton Orr.

Burke served as Executive Vice President and General Manager of the Anaheim Ducks from 2005 to 2008. In just over three seasons in Anaheim, Burke guided the Ducks to their first Stanley Cup (2007), first Pacific Division title (2007), and first-two 100+ point seasons (2006-07 & 2007-08). The Ducks also qualified for post-season contention in all three seasons, winning six-of-eight playoff series over that span.

Burke received two outstanding honours in the summer of 2008. On June 6, he was chosen by USA Hockey as General Manager of the 2010 U.S. Olympic Hockey Team, and was named a recipient of the 2008 Lester Patrick Award for outstanding service to hockey in the United States on August 7. Burke was also the General Manager for Team USA at the 2009 World Championships.

Burke was ranked No. 1 by The Hockey News in the magazine's Annual GM Rankings in March of 2008, and was a finalist for The Hockey News Executive of the Year in 2006. He was named the Sporting News Executive of the Year in 2001, and was a runner-up for the same award following the 2005-06 season.

Burke joined the Ducks after a six-year stint (1998-2004) as President and General Manager of the Vancouver Canucks where he revitalized the team and the community en route to consecutive 100+ point seasons and the 2004 Northwest Division title. Under Burke's leadership, the Canucks improved their point total in four consecutive years from 1999-2003.

Since the 2000-01 season, Burke's teams have qualified for the Stanley Cup playoffs seven times, playing in 13 total postseason series. In addition, those seven clubs recorded at least 90+ points, including four 100-point seasons.

Born in Providence, Rhode Island and raised in Edina, Minnesota, Burke was named the Vice President and Director of Hockey Operations by the Vancouver Canucks in June of 1987. Burke left Vancouver to serve as General Manager of the Hartford Whalers for one season in 1992, before joining the NHL front office as Senior Vice President and Director of Hockey Operations in September of 1993. Some of his duties with the NHL included acting as chief disciplinarian by ruling on violations for on-ice player conduct, and working closely with Commissioner Gary Bettman on league direction and collective bargaining matters.

After earning his Bachelor of Arts in History from Providence College in 1977, Burke signed with the Philadelphia Flyers prior to the 1977-78 season and won a Calder Cup Championship with the Flyers' American Hockey League affiliate the Maine Mariners. He then returned to school and graduated from Harvard Law in 1981. Burke practiced law in Boston for the next six years, representing professional hockey players until joining the Canucks in 1987. Brian resides with his wife Jennifer and has six children: Katie, Patrick, Brendan, Molly, Mairin and Gracie.

RON WILSON Head Coach

Ron Wilson was named the 27th head coach in Toronto Maple Leafs history on June 10, 2008. In his first season in Toronto, the Maple Leafs compiled a record of 34-35-13. Wilson earned his 550th career NHL win as a head coach on April 1, 2009 when Toronto defeated the Philadelphia Flyers 3-2. The 54-year-old currently sits second in all-time wins among active NHL coaches with 552. Wilson previously held NHL head coaching duties with Anaheim, Washington and San Jose.

Under Wilson's guidance the San Jose Sharks were the only NHL team to have won at least one playoff round in each season from 2003-04 to 2007-08. In his four full seasons behind the Sharks bench, the team advanced to the Western Conference Final for the first time ever in 2004, and reached the Conference Semifinals in 2006, 2007 and 2008. His Sharks teams garnered two Pacific Division championships (2004 and 2008); twice finished second in their division, and twice posted the second-best point total in the conference. Between 2003-04 and 2007-08, no team appeared in more Stanley Cup playoff rounds (nine) other than the Detroit Red Wings (10). Wilson's team had the third-most NHL playoff series victories (five) behind only Detroit (seven) and Anaheim (six) during that time.

With a record of 206-134-45 (W-L-O/T) Wilson surpassed Darryl Sutter as the Sharks' all-time wins leader on March 1, 2008. He is also the team's leader in post-season games coached with a 28-24 mark in 52 playoff games.

Wilson coached the Washington Capitals from 1997 until 2002 where he compiled a record of 192-167-51. His tenure in the United States' capital was highlighted by the team's only trip to the Stanley Cup Final in 1998.

Prior to spending five seasons with the Capitals, Wilson had served as the first head coach of the expansion Mighty Ducks of Anaheim in 1993, and he led the team to the post-season for the very first time in 1996-97.

In 13 NHL full seasons (minimum 82 games in a season) as head coach, Wilson's teams have reached the post-season eight times; won four division titles; won one playoff conference title; reached at least 90 points seven times; reached at least 100 points four times; reached at least 40 wins seven times; and reached 50 wins once (51 in 2006-07, which was a Sharks record).

Throughout his professional and amateur career, Wilson has enjoyed a long-standing relationship with USA Hockey. On April 6, 2009, Wilson was named USA Hockey's head coach for both the 2009 World Championships and the 2010 Olympics. Wilson has now coached the U.S. National team three times at the World Championships (1994, 1996 & 2009), advancing to the semifinals in each tournament. He also led Team USA to the gold medal in 1996 at the inaugural World Cup of Hockey and he coached the team again at the 2004 tournament. Wilson also served as head coach for Team USA at the 1998 Nagano Winter Olympics.

Wilson was a seventh-round selection of the Toronto Maple Leafs (132nd overall) in the 1975 NHL Amateur Draft. He made his NHL debut by playing in 13 games for Toronto in 1977-78, followed by 46 games in 1978-79 and five games in 1979-80. He recorded seven goals and 15 assists to go along with six penalty minutes in 64 total games with the blue and white. He recorded a goal and three assists in six career Maple Leafs playoff games. In 117 career NHL games as a player with Toronto and Minnesota, Wilson recorded 26 goals and 67 assists for 93 points.

Wilson is one of 15 individuals that have both played for the Maple Leafs and then went on to coach at least one game for the Original Six franchise.

Born in Windsor, Ontario, Ron is the son of Larry Wilson and the nephew of Johnny Wilson, both former players on Stanley Cup winning teams from Detroit.

Ron and his wife Maureen currently live in Toronto. They have two daughters Lauren and Kristen, and a granddaughter Riley.

Practice September 12-25 MasterCard Centre for Hockey Excellence

The MasterCard Centre for Hockey Excellence is the new Practice Facility for the Toronto Maple Leafs and Toronto Marlies. It is the first community arena to be built in Toronto in 25 years. With its four ice pads – three NHL-size pads and one Olympic-size pad, the MasterCard Centre for Hockey Excellence will also be used as a community facility that will benefit youth hockey development in Toronto.

The state-of-the-art team practice and community facility will become synonymous with hockey development and aspires to be a successful NHL global model, an intelligence centre that sets the standard for training and high performance in hockey worldwide.

The facility will serve as a great community asset that makes hockey accessible to the public. The Leafs will also use the arena to run hockey development clinics and programs including the Toronto Maple Leafs Hockey School, taking their outreach efforts to new levels by bringing hockey to Ontario's youth.

The MasterCard Centre for Hockey Development will officially open on September 12, 2009 in Etobicoke, Ontario.

All media are asked to enter the facility through the west entrance. Please show your media affiliation identification. Parking is available in the lot on the west side of the facility.
